Re: Memblatt v. Rios, et al.
Case No. 05 CV 1021 (RJD) (LB)

Dear Judge Dearie:

The Court's order of June 15, 2005 stated in part that, "If mediation does not succeed, parties will be given a date certain to answer or move." My letter of June 20, 2005 requested that said order be amended to the extent of marking my motions for default judgments "withdrawn." By an order dated June 22, 2005, the Court vacated the prior order, "noting that plaintiff's motion for default judgment is withdrawn . . ."

The mediation session herein, which was held on July 14, 2005, concluded without a settlement. To date, I have not received an answer or motion responsive to the complaint from any of the defendants.

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby respectfully requested that the Court set a date certain for the defendants to answer or move.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Judith B. Memblatt, Esq.
Plaintiff Pro Se
